

---

Bird Notes.

By Professor J. B. Cleland.

He had noticed the surface of his earth lawn tennis-court marred by scars and found that they were caused by White-backed Magpies (Gymnorhina hypoleuca), which birds were bringing down large insects and thrashing them on the court.