By Warren Hitchcock.

On 14th September, 1937, some Eastern Curlews (Numenius cyanopus) and about 200 Sharp-tailed Sandpipers (Erolia acuminata) were seen at the Outer Harbor.