

BIRD NOTES

gust 20 that he had again seen a single tive Companion a few weeks before, some-ies in the fields and at other times in the amps. On August 16 he had found a ough's nest with eggs. A number of Whited Ducks had been about.

Native Companion and Other Birds at Moorook.—S. Sanders Jun. reported on