

BIRD NOTES

Black Cormorant (Phalacrocorax carbo).
—Nine nests, one with young, the others empty, were found about 3 miles west of the Bluff, Encounter Bay, on a rock ledge known as the Flat Iron on October 4, 1948. The nests were about 20 feet above the ocean.—L. J. Ellis.