

---

BIRDS OBSERVED ON MOUNT CHARLOTTE AND IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD.

By J. B. Shekleton, Mount Charlotte, Hilltown, S.A.

Stubble-Quail (C. pectoralis), Common Bronzewing (P. chalcoptera), Black Cormorant (P. carbo), Pied Cormorant (P. varius), Spur-winged Plover (L. novae-hollandiae), Banded Plover (Z. tricolor), Southern Stone-Curlew (B. magnirostris), Australian Bustard (B. australis), White-faced Heron (N. novae-hollandiae), Black Duck (A. superciliosa), Grey Teal (Q. gibberifrons), Australian Goshawk (A. fasciatus), Wedge-tailed Eagle (U. audax), Whistling Eagle (H. sphenurus), Peregrine Falcon (F. peregrinus), Nankeen Kestrel (F. cenchroides), Galah (K. roseicapilla), Rosella (sp.), Ring-neck Parrot (B. barnardi), Tawny Frogmouth (P. strigoides), Kookaburra (D. gigas), Welcome-Swallow (H. neovena), Willie-Wagtail (R. leucophrys), Restless Flycatcher (S. inquieta), Magpie-Lark (G. cyanoleuca), Black-faced Cuckoo-Shrike (C. novae-hollandiae), Noisy Miner (M. melanocephala), Red Wattle-Bird (A. carunculata), Australian Pipit (A. australis), Crow (C. ceciliae), White-backed Magpie (G. hypoleuca).