

Contents

What is the evidence of contact and interaction between the two divergent lineages of Splendid Fairywren Malurus splendens in South Australia? Andrew Black, Philippa Horton, Greg Johnston and Brian Blaylock	49
---	----

BIRD NOTES

A Western Sandpiper Calidris mauri in Gulf St Vincent, South Australia Paul Taylor	69
---	----

Agonistic behaviour from Noisy Miners Manorina melanocephala toward Australian Magpies Gymnorhina tibicen swooping humans Matthew Mo	72
--	----

Display behaviour by Sharp-tailed Sandpipers Calidris acuminata at Tolderol Game Reserve Wetlands in January 2022 Colin Rogers	74
---	----

Foraging and feeding behaviour of Greater Sand Plover Charadrius leschenaultii and Terek Sandpiper Xenus cinereus in Gulf St Vincent, South Australia Colin Rogers	78
--	----

OBITUARY

Brian James Blaylock Philippa Horton	82
--	----

BOOK REVIEW

Curlews on Vulture Street by Darryl Jones, 2022 Philippa Horton	87
---	----

Front cover:

Turquoise Fairywren Malurus splendens callainus
Bon Bon Station Reserve, SA, September 2022
Image Bernie Haase

