
Current Observations.

By A. M. MORGAN.

Zanthomiza phrygia (the warty-faced Honey-eater)—Is present in large numbers about Blackwood just now.