

By Dr. A. S. Randell.

At Deep Creek, Lake Alexandrina, on 16th April, 1929, I saw two flocks of 22 and nine birds respectively of the Eastern Curlew (Numenius cyxynopus).