

By Professor J. B. Cleland.

Painted Quail (Turnix varia)—A pair was seen in the National Park, Belair, on 22nd June. A small flock of Brown-headed Honeyeaters (Melithreptus brevirostris) flew over the University grounds on 31st May.

---