

By E. A. Brooks.

Buckland Park, Two Wells.

On 3rd and 6th October, 1929, Wood-Swallows (sp. (?) ) were seen flying overhead; on the latter date they were in large numbers, and seemed inclined to settle, as they were flying low.