

By H. A. Stevens.

A Marsh-Crake (Porzana pusilla) was captured near St. Kilda (now called Moilong) in September, 1929. The bird was released on the River Torrens in the city.