

By Dr. W. Hamilton.

At Mudamuckla, 19 miles below Murat Bay, S.A., five Brush Bronzewings (Phaps elegans) were captured under some wire-netting at a low-lying spot where water had collected alongside the track and 300 yards from the sea.