

By L. K. McGilp, Onetree Hill.

On 5th January, 1930; I found a nest of a Jacky Winter (Microeca fascinans) containing two eggs.