

---

Bird Notes.

Mr. F. L. Berney, of Barcarolle, Longreach, Central Queensland, wrote on 30/5/1932:—"We had the same heat here and many birds died about buildings, but the loss of life was nothing like that recorded in South Australia, due most likely to the country being well shaded with timber."