Bird Notes.

By F. E. Parsons.—On 29th July, 1932, he heard the Fan-tailed Cuckoo (Cacophantia stabeliformis), and the Horsfield Bronze Cuckoo (Chalcites basalis) at Glen Osmond; and during the week heard several Cockatoos Parrots (Leptolophus hollandicus), and saw one bird flying over his house at Glen Osmond.

On 2nd August, 1932, a Pallid Cuckoo (Cuculus pallidus) was noted in the South Parklands, Adelaide.

On 1st September, 1932, a Pallid Cuckoo was calling (the scale call), seemingly all the night.
