

---

Bird Notes.

By F. E. Parsons.

In October, 1932, a nest of the Banded Landrail (Hypotaenidia philippensis) containing six eggs was seen at Paradise, S.A.