

Bird Notes.

By F. B. Shoobridge.

On 25th July, 1933, at a little north of Gepp's Cross, hundreds of White-faced Herons (Notophox novae-hollandiae) were seen feeding in the open paddocks, on which there was much water lying, on the east side of the road.

---