

By P. W. Mellor.

He stated on 13th July, 1936, that a Black-shouldered Kite had been observed at Fulham for about a fortnight, and that the bird had been shot at by persons.

---