

Petroica phoenicea, Flame Robin.

The arrival of this species in South Australia in 1937 has been recorded as follows:—

A male was seen at Milang on 9th April, and a male at Mitcham on 20th April. (L. E. Roake).

Two males were seen at Clapham on 2nd May. (H. Wade).

A male was seen in the garden at Netherby, Mitcham, on 25th, 26th, and 28th June. (J. Sutton).

(A male was seen at Canberra in the week ending 24th April by Professor J. B. Cleland).

---