

By J. Beek.

15th May, 1938.—At Seaton Park, between 10 and 11 o'clock in the forenoon a Mistletoe-Bird (Dicaeum hirundinaceum) flew down for a drink when the tap was turned on. This was the first time that the species had been seen there.

---