

GLOSSY IBIS (Plegadis falcinellus).

About forty individuals of this species were observed at Bool Lagoon on 12 November, 1941, and some were noted by L. J. Ellis at Tailem Bend early in January, 1942. S. W. P. Osborne also saw a flock at Milang in the third week in February, 1942.

H. T. CONDON.