

BIRD NOTES

Black-fronted Dotterels.—Probably a dozen or so of this species nested at the end of November, 1942, in the fallows between trombones in market gardens at Fulham.—Captain S. A. White. Five Black-fronted Dotterels were seen at Marsden on December 6, 1942.—Oliver Fuller.