

BIRD NOTES

Wedge-tailed Eagle (Uroaetus audax) attacked by five Kestrels (Falco cenchroides).— At Encounter Bay on January 8, 1946, five Kestrels were seen flying around and swooping on a soaring Eagle. They were followed by one or two Magpies (Gymnorhina hypoleuca).—J. B. Cleland.