

BIRD NOTES

Tawny Frogmouth (Podargus strigoides).
—Two or three (?) eggs in advanced stage of incubation in nest about 20 feet above ground, built in fork of White Gum on bank of River Torrens Gorge on October 26, 1947.—D. A. G. Thomas.