

Broadcast by Professor Ernst Mayr

At the monthly meeting held on January 29, 1960, members of the Association listened with great interest to a broadcast on conservation and habitat preservation by Professor Ernst Mayr on behalf of the Australian Broadcasting Commission. Professor Mayr, formerly of the American Museum of Natural History and now a professor of zoology at Harvard University, visited Adelaide from January 21-23.