

BIRD NOTES

PELICANS BREEDING IN THE NORTH-EAST

According to Mr. Elliot Price of Mulloona Station, Pelicans nest three miles north of his Station, on the River Frome, about one year in ten. Whenever there are good rains 40-50 pairs nest at Lake Harry (actually two lakes) and on Lake Marion. There may be hundreds of nests during years of flood.

D. E. POMEROY.
