

BIRD NOTESGREY GOSHAWK AT LUCINDALE

On 19/3/65 a white hawk attacking birds in an aviary near Lucindale was shot by the property owner. Luckily H. Bakker was able to secure this bird, which proved to be a white phase of Accipiter novaehollandiae and the specimen was duly delivered to the S.A. Museum.

A. R. ATTIWILL.