

---

XVI INTERNATIONAL ORNITHOLOGICAL CONGRESS—This, the first such congress in the Southern Hemisphere, will be held in Canberra in 1974. The programme will include meetings at which papers will be read, informal discussions, excursions and films. A brochure giving final information will be distributed to members of the RAOU, and to other ornithological societies, towards the end of 1972. .EDITOR.