

Contents

John Gould in South Australia and a reappraisal of his type locality, 'The Belts of the Murray' Graham Carpenter and Andrew Black	1
Diverse interactions, including hybridisation, between Brown and Inland Thornbills in South Australia Andrew Black, Philippa Horton and Leo Joseph	18
BIRD NOTES
Evasive behaviour by a female Plains-wanderer, Pedionomus torquatus, on the Birdsville Track, South Australia Colin Rogers and John Cox	35
Ph.D THESIS ABSTRACTS
Comparative ecology, and conservation, of the Melithreptus genus in South Australia Nigel Willoughby	38
The ecological significance of sexual dimorphism in the Crescent Honeyeater, Phylidonyris pyrrhoptera Paul Foster	42
Ecology and behaviour of Pachycephala rufogularis and P. inornata (Aves: Pachycephalidae) in woodlands of South Australia Dragos Moise	43
BOOK REVIEW
Australian predators of the sky Simon Brealey	45

Front cover photograph:
Gilbert's Whistler (m), a species first
collected by John Gould
Merilyn Browne

Print Post Approved PP532699/00001

