

BIRD NOTES FOR JULY, 1920.

Capt. S. A. White noted, July 1—Spiny-cheeked Honey-eater (A. rufogularis) still at the Reedbeds.

July 2.—Black-chinned Honey-eater (Melithreptus gularis) calling loudly and fluttering in flocks.

July 5.—Great numbers of Silver Gulls about.

July 8.—Black-chinned Honey-eater (M. gularis; very noisy; several Blue Wrens (Malurus cyaneus leggei) in full plumage.