

Capt. S. A. White states that on October 2nd First Rufous Song lark (Petenoedus mathewsi) put in an appearance; it remained a few days, and disappeared. No others have been seen.

October 10th—A Little Falcon (Falco longipennis) put in appearance; swallows with their young broods very excited.