

By A. Keith Ashby.

I saw seven or eight Swift Lorikeets (Lathamus discolor-tregllasi) on 28th May and two on 16th June, 1922, at Blackwood.

Regent Honey-eaters.—Mr. W. Weidenbach reported that these birds appear to have left Glen Osmond about 24th June, and Mr. A. Keith Ashby says they have appeared at Blackwood during June.