

—By R. C. Beck.—

October 13th.— A pair of Murray Magpies have built near my house—the first noted.

October 17th.—A flock of Wood-Swallows arrived at Sea-ton (perhaps a thousand), and are evidently mating.

October 27th.—Pallid Cuckoos are still in the district.