

By Dr. A. M. Morgan.

Near Normanville, on 20th April, 1924, in a patch of scrub, the following birds were observed:—Hooded Robin, Red Wattle-Bird, Brush Wattle-Bird, New Holland Honey-eater, Singing Honey-eater, White-plumed Honey-eater, Yellow-tailed Thornbill, Blue Mountain Lorikeet, Musk Lorikeet, Purple-crowned Lorikeet, Whistling Eagle, Crimson Rosella, White-browed Babbler, Tree-Martin, Grey Shrike-Thrush, Brown Tree-creeper, Blue-Wren, Red-tipped Pardalote, White-backed Magpie, Dusky Wood-Swallow.